Monday February 24th, 1746. [Numb. 622]

LONDON, October 31.

THEY write from Paris, that Orders have been sent to the Men of War in the Port of Rochefort, to sail immediately, in order, as is supposed, to join the Ferrol Squadron, and assist them in their Design, whatever it may be

Letter from Weymouth, October 26.

"The 24th came in here, a small Vessel from Alderney, who "sailed from thence the 23d in the Evening; the Master reports "that that Morning arrived there two Gentlemen from France, "who told him that an English Man of War, of 60 or 70 Guns "was in Chace, of ten French Merchant ships, and two Frigates "their Convoy, off Odierne Bay; and that a very hard Gale at "S W. came on upon them in the Night, that not only his Ma"jesty's Ship, but the whole Fleet she was in chase of, were dri"ven on shore in the said Bay, and every Soul perish'd; and "that they had taken up 200 dead Bodies the next Morning, "near Odierne.

All our Letters from the North agree, that Lord Loudon is at the Head of a considerable Body in the Highlands of Scotland, on the Back of the Rebels, which joined to other Disappointments and Misfortunes, they have met with, and the near Approach of the King's Forces, has thrown them into the utmost Perplexity and Confusion.

Letters from Leghorn by Yesterday's Mail mention, that King Theodore had, by the Favour of six English Men of War, landed at Corsica, having with him a large Quantity of Arms and Ammunition. These Letters add, that the People in that Island had on this Account express'd great Satisfaction, and it was not doubted would favour his Designs.

November 14. A Proclamation is issued for a Fast to be observ'd throughout that Part of Great Britain call'd Scotland, upon Wednesday the 18th of December next.

His Grace the Duke of Somerset has subscribed the Sum of eleven hundred Pounds on Account of the Associations in several Parts, viz. five hundred to York, the same Sum to St. James's, Westminster, and one hundred to St Martin's.

By a private Letter from Berwick we learn, that a Man meanly habited, was relieved by the Mayor some time since, under Pretence of being wounded in the King's Service in Scotland. He said he was going to visit his Friends in London; but being seen there about 18 Days after he was taken up on Suspicion, when two Letters directed to the Chevalier were found upon him in Answer to two Letters he had brought to London; whereupon he was committed to Prison.

After the Treasonable Papers were burnt at the Exchange on Tuesday, the Populace carried the Effigy of the Pretender, hanging on a Gibbet, thro' the City, attended by six Butchers, with their Mock Musick.

We hear that the Association in Hampshire have rais'd 13,000 l. for his Majesty's Service.

On Saturday last sailed from Portsmouth his Majesty's Ship Kinsale, Capt. Loftus, with a large Fleet of Store ships, under his Command, for Cape Breton.

Tuesday was launch'd, at Mr Bird's Dock at Deptford, a Packet Boat, intended to go between Falmouth and the Sugar Islands, and call'd the Countess of Leicester. The Command of her is given to Capt Harman, many Years in the West India Trade. She is esteemed to be fine contrived, as well for sailing as Accommodations.

'Tis reported that a considerable Sum of Money was found in the House of Gordon the Priest, taken up last Week.

Yesterday General Douglas's Regiment of Foot went through the City from the Camp at Dartford in Kent, in order to join the Army under Sir John Ligonier, now marching down to Lancashire.

Tuesday last the Right Honourable the Earl of Rockingham, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent, met the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders at Maidstone, to Consult of Measures to be taken for the Defence of his Majesty and this Kingdom, they came from all Parts of that extensive County, and unanimously resolved to raise and maintain 2000 Men during the Rebellion.

Extract of a Letter from Berwick, October 30

The Pretender, in a Council of War held lately with his chief Officers, declared he thought himself very ill used by many in Great Britain, having, under their Hands, repeated Promises of their Assistance upon his Arrival, with Arms and Persons, in behalf of his Cause; the Disappointment of which occasion'd him to express himself with very great Warmth, in being so much deceived. On which Occasion the Duke of Perth, and some others, said, that they were much worse used in their Undertakings, having had Assurances from France of being aided with 10,000 Men, and by Spain with 6000; which Promises engaged him, and many others, in the present Undertaking, to the Hazard, not only of their Lives, but the Ruin of their Families for ever.

November 19. A young Fellow, who was a Surgeon at Bath, is brought to Town, and now in Custody, for holding a treasonable Correspondence with the Pretender, and his Friends ——— This Affair is said to have been discovered by some Papers which were seized belonging to Gordon the Romish Priest, when he was taken up.

Yesterday the Baggage of General Ligonier was carried out of Town, to the Army which he is to command; and we are assured, that that brave and experienced Commander is recovered of his late Indisposition, and will set out in a few Days to stop the Progress of a lawless and bloody Rabble.

On Saturday last Orders were sent to the Tower, for a large Train of Artillery to be got ready, for a Third Army, which is to be commanded by his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

They write from Cambridge, that on Tuesday last a Spy was taken up there, and committed for further Examination. He had wrote a List of all the richest Persons in Town, with several Remarks concerning the Quantity of Plate in the Colleges, &c

There is an Account, that on Friday last, towards Noon, the Rebels took Possession of the Town of Carlisle, the Inhabitants, Militia, and Invalids, not being in a Condition to hold out against them. The Inhabitants, 'tis said, had agreed to pay the Rebels six Months Land Tax and Excise, which amounts to about 2000 l. to avoid being plunder'd. The Governor has taken the most useful People into the Castle, with all the Arms, &c in order to make some Stand, tho' it was much feared he would be obliged to surrender before General Wade arriv'd there.

There is also Advice, that General Wade decamp'd on Saturday Morning last, about 10 o Clock from Newcastle, and was marching towards Carlisle.

Several of the most eminent Quakers of this City made last Week a voluntary Offer to furnish the Soldiers that are gone to the North, at their own Expence, with Flannel Waistcoats, to protect them from the severe Season, which was accepted of; 10,000 of them are already made, and 10,000 more will be ready in a few Days.
